

PRESIDENT HILLARY CLINTON OF ISRAEL

by Barry Chamish

Just a typical week in Israel. A Hamas rocket wounds eight Israeli soldiers, PM Olmert and Foreign Minister Tzipi Livni lie that they will order retaliation and instead, pardon 230 convicted "Palestinian" prisoners. What they forgot to announce was that a think tank in New York called the Council On Foreign Relations (CFR) has banned all real military measures against the "Palestinian" leadership, and they obey the CFR.

Then a legitimately bought building in Hebron is evacuated in less than an hour using the same tactics previously employed against Gush Katif. Provocateur Itamar Ben Gvir brings in his hoodlums, and they scare and disgust the minions of good Hebron residents away from the building. Those remaining wear no protection against the police and will offer no serious opposition. While Defence Minister Ehud Barak pretends to negotiate with the Yesha Council, he is awaiting a message from inside the building that everyone has sat down to lunch. Then the order to evacuate is given and Peace House falls like a piece of halvah in an hour.

And the Jews don't blame the real enemy, the CFR, which has banned all Jewish expansion in Judea and Samaria. And Barak obeys the CFR.

This is just the beginning of the end, as PM Olmert promises that Peace House is the first step in a mass uprooting of Jews from Judea and Samaria, as dictated by the CFR.

Olmert alludes to looming 'West Bank' evacuations

PM says an unstoppable process has started that will ultimately uproot 'tens of thousands' of Jews.

Someone put a knife under the throat of Presidential Regent Obama warning him that he may have won the election but Hillary Clinton is the real President of Israel (if not, the US). The Clinton gang is back in power, taking over from Condi Rice (CFR) et al with their plans to castrate Israel into extinction and set the Middle East ablaze for sport. Shall we begin with the Australian rat Martin Indyk who put together a new CFR program for Pres. To Be Obama, that, my goodness, is precisely the Oslo, Saudi, Quartet recipe for the end of Israel?:

Dear Colleague,

Because of your interest in issues affecting the Middle East, I wanted to share with you a major series of Middle East policy recommendations for the Obama transition team. "Restoring the Balance: A Middle East Strategy for the Next President" advocates a new approach to pursuing U.S. interests in the region, one that refocuses attention from the war in Iraq and the war on terror, to the challenges of Arab-Israeli peacemaking and Iran's nuclear program. The report addresses the six most pressing Middle East challenges facing president-elect Obama: Iran, Iraq, the Arab-Israeli conflict, proliferation, terrorism, and political and economic development. You can find summaries of the recommendations here:

<http://www.cfr.org/thinktank/tanusmes/index.html>

This report is the culmination of an eighteen-month long project in which Middle East experts from the Council on Foreign Relations and the Saban Center at Brookings worked together in small teams, travelled to the region, interviewed its leaders, and reviewed their ideas with a prominent Board of Advisors. The project was co-directed by Martin Indyk, Director of the Saban Center at Brookings and Gary Samore, Director of Studies at the Council on Foreign Relations.

I hope you find this report useful. The recommendations are also available in book form from the Brookings Institution Press:

Best regards,

Martin Indyk

Thank you, Marty. That was beautiful. Would you mind if the guys at the CFR appointed some really loyal members to make your visionary scheme work?

Samantha Powers - She called for an invasion of Israel to impose a solution to the Palestinian Issue. She has also complained about the undue influence of the "Jews" in American Foreign Policy.

Obama rehires advisor who wants to invade Israel

<http://www.haaretz.com/hasen/spages/1042698.html>

President-elect Barack Obama is considering the appointment of Daniel Kurtzer, former American Ambassador to Egypt (1997-2001) and Israel (2001-2005), to become his administration's presidential envoy to the Middle East, a senior Israeli diplomatic source said this week. Kurtzer, 59, joined Obama's primary and presidential campaigns as a senior member of the president-elect's foreign advisers.

The author of the next news item is Baruch Gordon, who has been reading me for 12 years. Our bar mitzvah is coming up soon. That's a long time to catch on to one of my key messages, but I think he's coming around. Note a big change in the article:

Blair Urges Council on Foreign Relations to Pressure Israel

05 December 08 03:38

by Baruch Gordon

(IsraelNN.com) Former British Prime Minister Tony Blair called for United States President-elect Barack Obama to press hard for Israel to make further territorial concessions to the Palestinian Authority. Blair, speaking at the Council on Foreign Relations in New York on Wednesday, also praised Obama's selections to lead his national security team, most notably former NATO commander General James L. Jones as National Security Advisor for the incoming administration. Jones was until recently the US special envoy for Middle East security and in that role has advocated sending a NATO force to impose a solution in Judea and Samaria.

Blair is currently the international envoy to the Middle East for the Quartet, which is made up of the US, European Union, United Nations and Russia and has been pushing President George W. Bush's Road Map for a Palestinian state to be created in parts of Israel. Blair told a meeting of the Council on Foreign Relations that the time is now right for renewed pressure on the Jewish state and that much will be riding on what course of action Obama decides to take.

According to the Associated Press, Blair said, "What the president-elect has put together is a very, very strong team; not just with Hillary Clinton as secretary of state," but also retired General James L. Jones as Obama's national security adviser.

Noting that he has worked with Jones in the retired NATO commander's role as US special envoy for Middle East security, Blair said Jones is "someone who understands the situation very well."

"I think there is a consensus now among the international community – not just America, but everyone – on how to deal with this," Blair said. "The question is now, what people will watch for: Is it taken forward with the requisite urgency and determination? I have every confidence that it will be."

President-elect Obama, himself a member of the CFR, has pledged to make progress on the Middle East conflict a key diplomatic priority from his first day in office. He has called for a sustained push to achieve the goal of two states, one Jewish and one Arab, both in the small territory between the Mediterranean Sea and Jordan River.

Yehuda HaKohen of the Zionist Freedom Alliance told Israel National News that Tony Blair is "one of the biggest obstacles to regional stability" and that so long as the Quartet and CFR interfere in the Middle East, there will never be peace between Arabs and Jews.

"Tony Blair and other foreign leaders are responsible for fanning the flames of conflict in the Middle East," HaKohen said. He continued:

“In fact, it was the British who originally turned local Arabs and Jews against one another in order to further their own colonialist agenda for our region. And now Western governments arm both sides and then attempt to impose artificial diplomatic solutions. The Israeli government and PA leaderships today both behave as puppets to foreign regimes and both the local Jewish and Arab populations are suffering. The way to achieve real peace between peoples here is to work from the bottom up and not the top down. The Jewish and Arab peoples are both native to the Middle East. We have a great deal in common. But for efforts at genuine peace to succeed, Western governments and multinational corporations need to leave our region alone and let the indigenous Jews and Arabs settle things between ourselves.”

I have no idea what the Zionist Freedom Alliance is, but finally, its spokesman Yehuda HaKohen, condemned the CFR for fueling conflict in the Middle East. I've been waiting to read that in an Israeli news item for a decade and a half. Mine is but an impoverished existence. I seek the most humble satisfaction that occurs when one other Israeli forms an organization and condemns the real enemy. It sure beats reading the half-cocked "analyses" by Israeli writers blaming their troubles on anything from "post-Zionism," mentally ill leaders, self-hatred, corruption, lefties...anything but the truth.

The mayor of Metulla honored me with a response to my previous article claiming that his town was saved from rocket attacks by Rabin's 1987 deal with Hizbullah, the same gang of hoodlums promoted and funded by the Labor Party, to wreck Menachem Begin's justified Lebanon War. The good mayor's claim that arc saved his town, rather than an agreement to sacrifice Kiryat Shmoneh, is up for debate. Nonetheless, we respect him for writing so sincerely:

"As long as the rockets were landing, life did not improve anywhere. Taking into account that Katyushas cannot be shot at a specific target and can only be aimed in a certain direction, one never knows where it will land. There are various Katyushas and the distance travelled varies. Due to the arc in which the long-range Katyushas were shot, more landed in Kiryat Shmonah and Nahariya, than did in Metulla and Rosh Ha'Nikra, but this did not make the 2 settlements." Amichai Ma'oz

My new service is working. Everyone loves it. Write me if you want in. Here is what just a few of those who receive it wrote me:

Hey, wow! That's great stuff! You have a lot of friends watching a variety of things, and I'm sure that helps. I look forward to getting the next one ~ thanks for adding us to your list 🙏 Having this kind of info helps all of us keep track of the variety of things that are going on and possible theories.

Thank you for the "service", it is great !!!

**

I have found the material so far very informative - the material you are sending is an excellent resource. Thanks.

**

I haven't read the rest of your letter yet but plan on spending time on it (a lot of time). I like the material you send as it helps me also to connect the dots in many others area.

Good Job.

Welcome to my new service. Here's an outline of what you'll get:

- Standard, mainline reports corrected to point out the shadow world we know about but they will not acknowledge. I'll add a few comments, no more, to complete the picture.

- Unstandard, unmainline reports that I don't use because, believe it or not, I'm too cowardly. If you think my reports are daring, you have to see what is actually sent to me. And you will.

- There is the issue of hatred. I never exhibit hatred, except to crime and deceit. But what I must reject are people and groups who viciously despise the likes of Jesuits, Jews, new agers, Christians of all shades, Arabs, bankers, masons, Zionists, Democrats, pro-lifers, Luciferians, Jewish leaders, the medical industry...you name it. I can't include the overly emotional because I must be objective, but buried in their agendas there can be some truth. Sometimes, they are even right on target. You'll get to know them all.

- Then there are financial analysts who are usually right on target, so are buried alive by the mainstream.

- More information is sent to me on subjects I can't repeat because of reader boredom. For instance, I get lots of new reports on Shabtai Tzvi, Rabbi Antelman, Rabin, Vatican etc. I'll send these to you along with readers' comments, eye-witness reports etc. with the writers' names removed.

- I don't use deep political and economic conspiracies. I have enough trouble with my straightforward essays on provable conspiracies. I'll send you a steady stream of conspiratorial literature sent to me. I add, much of it comes from places outside my sphere of interest. Do with it as you like.

- And, you'll get the material I finally winnow out for my own articles. Choose the points I should focus on. Add your own input. Help make my work more accessible to those who care about Israel's survival.

Here's how I'll get this done. I'll keep a separate list. I'll send one long e-mail every day or two so you won't be flooded with mail from me. I'll add the correspondence to this letter, no matter how long, and you can pick and choose.

And now, the difficult part for me; payment. I am the world's worst businessman. Some of the people requesting the service have savings, others are struggling more. All are sincere. I receive over 400 letters on a given day. Providing the service means putting a couple of hours into these letters, organizing them and getting them to you at least, bi-weekly. I'll commit myself to six months of work in this experimental period.

You decide what it's worth.

San Francisco, CA - Police Probing Activist's Death Plunge in Elevator Shaft

Yesterday at 11:49 PM*

San Francisco, CA - A prominent Israel activist was found dead at the bottom of an elevator shaft by workers inspecting the elevator in the historic, nine-story Sharon Building at 55 New Montgomery St. Daniel J. Kliman, 38, was the co-founder of San Francisco Voice for Israel, an affiliate of the national Israel advocacy group StandWithUs, and a well-known pro-Israel activist in the San Francisco Bay area. His body was found in the San Francisco building where he was taking Arabic classes. It had been at the bottom of the elevator shaft since Nov. 25, building manager Brad Bernheim said. There were no classes held last week, and the elevator supposedly was closed for repairs. Police are investigating his death. As news of the discovery filtered out Tuesday, his supporters and friends were in near disbelief that someone so dynamic could be gone.

"The first words that come to mind for me when I think of Daniel are 'vibrant' and 'alive,' " said Rabbi Judah Dardik of Beth Jacob Congregation, the orthodox synagogue in Oakland where Kliman was an active member. "That's why this is such a shock. Whenever he was in the room, he was such a huge presence."

"He was the public face of grass-roots Israel advocacy in the San Francisco Bay area," said Mike Harris, his colleague at Voice for Israel. Harris said that he knew of no specific threats against Kliman, but that Kliman had been assaulted before at a pro-Israel rally.

So tell me, did Kliman's fellow students get detention for murdering him? Surely, somebody had to stay after class!

Allow me to reprint a correspondent's review of my book, Bye Bye Gaza:

Having just finished your Bye Bye Gaza, I wanted to compliment you on some extraordinary writing skills. Some of your prose actually "soared"....Point Being: I have read every email you ever sent my way..but in none of those was your WORDSMITHING ever presented in such a surprising and wonderful manner. Eventually, you will be hailed as the PROPHET which you certainly appear to be!
